Very Likely

'Zorba' Will

Be Long Run

By WILLIAM GLOVER

AP Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP) — A magnificent musical, "Zorba," opened Sunday night at Broadway's Imperial Theater. It should be there a long, long, long time.

In addition to having such basic essentials as a fine cast, good score and visual appeal, the production achieves the difficult transition from entertaining showmanship to memorable art.

Part of this merit is inherent in the story, derived from a novel by Nikos Kazantzakis which supplied Anthony Quinn with one of his finest film roles. The key credit for the stage concept belongs to Harold Prince, producer and director.

Zorba, performed with rough exuberance by Herschel Bernardi, is a graying Greek who lives for each day only in his quest for freedom. He teams up—the time is 1924—with a bookish stranger to reopen an island mine. The collision of these unlikely partners with rural superstition and violence solidly provides the ensuing theatrical excitement.

The shining, dominant quality throughout is a simple message of uninhibited joy in being alive. There are tragic moments too, but they augment—here is the show's creative distinction—the ecstasy of existence.

"I believe in grabbing at life—every second," says Zorba. "It never happened before." His mood is highly contagious.

The musical's book is another fine feat by Joseph Stein, who served Prince similarly with "Fiddler on the Roof."

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HE WANTS TO EAT HIS CAKE AND HAVE IT TOO

Dear Helen: I am in love with a policeman who is now on his third marriage. He pays child support to his first wife, and so he can't leave his present wife, as he needs her paycheck.

He doesn't love her. Says she is always nagging him about other women. I know he is not a cheat, Helen, as he has been with me every night for four months. He tells his wife he has to work late.

When I suspected I was pregnant, I called her up, not letting her know who I was. She sure didn't sound like she mistrusted him. She laughed at me.

My man says to be patient and some day we can be married. My apartment is his home, but he still lives with his wife, and I'm wondering if he wants to have his cake and eat it too. He seems so sincere and loving, but what will happen later on when I can't work? — LOST IN LOVE

Dear L in L: Other-Women Heartache No. 7,864. Why oh why can't you love-blinded gals see you're just another score for a man who wants to have his mate and cheat her too?

.....And if, by 100 to one chance you win him, you'll soon learn how the "nagging" wife suffers: You'll be one!

Boot him out and save your money for a maternity home.—H.

Dear Helen: No wonder women and children are getting so out of hand. They have lost all respect for the so-called head of the house. People blame the women for the ills of the world, but who lets her act spoiled and headstrong? Who lets her control the money; decide how the kids will be raised; where vacations will be spent; what house to live in. Let's put the blame where it belongs: On the poor examples of fathers and husbands! If they would take their rightful place in the home as absolute ruler, there would be less trouble everywhere. — MARRIED TO A REAL MAN AND LIKE IT

Dear MTRMALI: Partner, yes. Ruler, no!

I think you'll hear from many wives—and husbands too—who prefer shared responsibility: No cop-out on either side.

But this takes an unusually well-matched pair, and I agree with you that too often Mom gets the upper hand.—H.

Dear Helen: I just want "LOST" to know he is not alone. I lost my husband six weeks before my eighth child was born. I suffered the grief he speaks about. But one day I saw what this was doing to my children. Feeling my sorrow and loneliness, they were constantly scared that they might lose me too.

I came to understand the love I shared with my husband was still working hard, and living still alive in the children, and I was being selfish to deprive them of it.

Now we're a close family, having fun, doing things together working hard, and living fully. The memory of my love has taken its special place in my heart, and the fear we all felt

Marriage Has Part in LBJ's Weekend

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marriage played a special part of President Johnson's weekend. He celebrated his own 34th wedding anniversary Sunday and attended the marriage ceremony of one of his young aides.

The President and his wife Lady Bird noted their 34 years of marriage by exchanging sentimental gifts. Johnson gave his wife a letter he had written for the anniversary.

The First Lady, in turn, presented the President with a copy of her diary entry dated Feb. 13, 1941, the first time the then Texas congressman came his wife attended a social function at the White House.

Sunday night, the Johnsons attended the wedding of his appointments secretary, Jim Jones, to Olivia Barclay, a Washington attorney.

Jones, at 29 one of the youngest men to hold the appointments post, was once described by his boss as having never made a mistake.

Following the ceremony at a Georgetown Roman Catholic church, the Johnsons, along with their elder daughter Lynda Robb, attended a reception at the Federal City Club in a downtown hotel.

Florence Chadwick was the first woman to swim the English Channel from England to France.

Detroit tied St. Louis, x-1.

Fred Stanfield's power play goal broke a second period tie and then the Boston center added another goal in the third period as the Bruins whipped Oakland, Boston remained third in the East Division, just two points back of the Rangers.

Marcel Pronovost's 45-foot shot skipped off Chicago's Howie Young and into the Black Hawks' net for Toronto's tying goal in the third period. It was the first of the season for the veteran Maple Leaf defenseman.

Bobby Hull's goal with just 14 seconds left in the second period was Chicago's only score.

Philadelphia bounced three goals in the third period to beat Los Angeles and take over second place in the West Division. Jim Johnson's 30-footer with 3:01 left to play snapped a 1-1 tie and then Brit Selby hit an empty cnet for an insurance goal.

Philadelphia's Larry Hale and Bob Wall of Los Angeles had traded goals earlier in the period.

Equestrian Team Ahead of Canadians

TORONTO (AP) — The U.S. equestrian team took another step toward a sweep of all six national horse shows this season by pulling 20 points ahead of Canada at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair Sunday.

Led by Carol Hofmann, on Outlate, and Neal Shapiro, on Blue Plum, the United States added 16 points for a 51 total.

Miss Hofmann and Shapiro took first and second, respectively in the L. Col. Stuart C. Bate Memorial Challenge Trophy, marking the ninth straight year U.S. riders have won the jumping event.

Miss Hofmann, of North Branch, N.J., cleared 14 obstacles in one minute for 28 points and Shapiro, of Old Brookville, N.Y., managed 26 points with 13 successful jumps in the same time.

Henderson, Ouachita Play Sat.

Ouachita Baptist University and Henderson go at each other something fierce when nothing is at stake.

Saturday, they'll have something to play for besides the Arkadelphia championship.

Ouachita can gain a share of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship with a victory.

A victory for Henderson would assure the Reddies of a tie for second.

Arkansas Tech wrapped up at least a share of the title Saturday with a 21-7 decision over Hardin. Ouachita, which upset Tech two weeks ago, wrapped up their seventh straight victory by blanking Southern State 14-0.

Ouachita must stop Henderson quarterback Tommy Hart to defeat the Reddies.

Hart scored three touchdowns last week, including one on a 68-yard dash late in the game, as Henderson came from behind to defeat State College of Arkansas 21-16.

Ouachita's defense, which was forced to give Tech the big play two weeks ago, was a big factor Saturday. An intercepted pass set up the TIGERS' FIRST TOUCHDOWN.

Arkansas A&M can guarantee itself at least a third place conference finish with a victory Saturday over Southern State at Magnolia.

Tech, ranked ninth in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' ratings, closes out its season against Southeast Missouri at Russellville. State College plays Harding at Searcy in the only other action.

Diamonds Are Beaten by Omaha Team

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The Omaha Mustangs defeated the Arkansas Diamonds 36-13 Saturday to clinch at least a tie for second place in the Central Division of the Continental Football League.

Pete Tatem accounted for the first three Omaha touchdowns with plunges of two and seven yards and a 30-yard run.

Omaha grabbed a 7-6 lead in the first quarter and provided a sufficient winning margin with 13 more points in the second period.

AM&N Loses to Texas Southern

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Texas Southern whipped Arkansas Southern 21-7 Saturday in the Southwest Athletic Conference football game.

John Mosley scored two touchdowns for Southern on runs of one and five yards.

Larry Banks booted a 17-yard field goal to give AM&N a 3-0 lead, but Mosley's two second-quarter TDs put the Tigers ahead to stay.

David Mays' 33-yard field

Scenes From Hope—Nashville Football Game

Ark. State Captures Loop Title

The Southland Conference closes out its season Saturday with the conference football championship already tucked away in the Ozarks at Arkansas State.

Tailback Frank McGuigan scored two touchdowns and ran over an important two-point conversion to lead Arkansas State to a 22-21 victory over the University of Texas at Arlington in the title game Saturday.

goal capped the Tigers scoring.

A 13-yard scoring run by the Golden Lions' James White cut the Tiger lead to 17-11 in the third period.

Kathy Finally Conquers Baky Putter

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth conquered a baky putter Sunday to finish the last nine par figures and win the Pensacola Invitational Golf Tournament. She collected $1,875.

Miss Whitworth's 216 for the 54 holes was three strokes ahead of Jo Ann Prentice and it gave her more than $50,000 in winnings on the Ladies Professional Golfers Association tour this year. It was her first victory at Pensacola.

Jo Ann Prentice captured the $1,475 second spot and Betsy Cullen tied with Sybil Griffin for third.

"I had to struggle all the way and had a hard time settling down," Miss Whitworth said.

"I don't know whether it was the pressure of wanting to win here so badly or if it was that you simply can't let down on a single hole.

Miss Whitworth took bogeys at three, eight and nine, but birdied the 10th hole and played par golf from there on in over the 6,316-yard Seaside Hills Country Club where par is 36-37-73.

Montgomery Gets October Meyer Award

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas quarterback Bill Montgomery Saturday was named the outstanding amateur athlete in the state for the month of October.

A group of sports writers votes Montgomery the Charles T. Meyer Foundation Award.

Lakers Are Having Their Say Now

bBy THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Remember all that talk about much trouble Los Angeles was having winning, despite the presence of Wilt Chamberlain, Jerry West and Elgin Baylor? Well, that's all it was—talk.

Right now, the Lakers are having their say, and they're leaving the rest of the Western Division of the National Basketball Association speechless.

That's the way it was Sunday night as the Lakers hogged the floor and swept aside the Seattle Super Sonics 105-94 for their eighth consecutive victory and a 4½ game lead in the division.

The Lakers now stand 12-4 with no other team in the division over .500.

In the only other game Boston regained the lead in the East with a 130-98 breeze over Phoenix, giving the Celtics an edge of 36 percentage points on Baltimore.

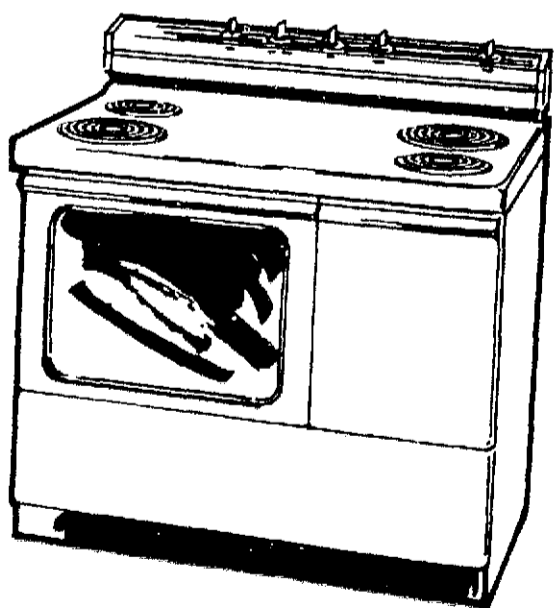

In the only American Basketball Association game Indiana raced past the New York Nets 114-91.

European Money Market Is Quieter

PARIS (AP) — European money markets were quieter today as speculators apparently held back in the expectation of international emergency action to prevent chaotic disruption of the world's major currencies.

Pressure on the French franc eased off noticeably from the near hysteria level reached at the end of last week.

The governors of the leading Western central banks met in Basel, Switzerland, for the second day amid reports that the German central bank was ready to give France an emergency credit of a billion dollars. Bankers in the know discounted reports that France had rejected a condition that French domestic consumption be cut down.

The speculators who bought an estimated $1.5 billion dollars worth of West German marks last week in the hope that the mark would be revalued upward and the franc devalued apparently were less sure today.

The frenzied speculation last week brought the franc to its lowest level since the riots and general strike last June. The fever also affected the pound and other European currencies.

Leading bankers throughout Europe stressed their belief that the collapse of the franc and the pound would disorganize the entire world monetary system. They said world financial solidarity was essential to ward off the speculative onslaught.

French officials contended that the crisis was caused by snowballing rumors that the mark would be revalued rather than by any new weakness in the French economy. Speculators who expected both devaluation of the franc and revaluation of the mark traded francs for dollars in enormous quantities in the hope of a double profit.

Premier Maurice Couve de Murville scheduled a television address tonight to announce government measures to deal with the crisis. The newspaper France Soir said the speech should put an end to the market speculation.

The paper said one likely solution was a direct arrangement between the French and German governments to ship back to France the capital exported by French speculators. This would permit the Bank of France to sell marks without restriction, "while waiting for the speculators to run out of ammunition."

There were some reports that Couve de Murville might also announce some curtailment of French government expenditure. This might meet the condition, reportedly attached by Germany to a billion-dollar loan to France.

Rebellion of Priests Under Probe

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An 18-member commission established to probe a rebellion of priests against their archbishop is beginning its investigation, which the 68 dissenting priests already have called "a pointless, toothless gesture."

The commission will hear testimony today through Thursday. A spokesman said 20 persons have asked to testify in a dispute that has rocked the Roman Catholic archdiocese of San Antonio.

The 68 priests have demanded the resignation of Archbishop Robert E. Lucey, 77, who has been spiritual leader of a half million Catholics in the 32-county archdiocese for 27 years.

Rotating Battalions Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army and Marine Corps' practice of rotating battalion commanders in Vietnam every few months has been questioned by a secret Pentagon survey as possibly costing extra casualties, the Washington Post said today.

The Post said the Defense Department's Systems Analysis Office, a civilian run agency, ran a study which it said indicated there was a relationship between the experience level of the battalion officers and the casualties suffered by their men.

According to the newspaper, the Marines and the Army rotate the officers commanding battalions every four to six months.

The study, made over a two-year period ending in 1967 and involving more than 100 battalion commanders, shows that battle deaths rose from four men a month under experienced commanders to almost five under inexperienced ones, the Post story asserted.

Drive Aimed at Getting GOP Congress

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President-elect Richard M. Nixon is reported considering an intensive drive, possibly under the direction of a new national GOP chairman, to win a more Republican Congress in 1970.

But more immediate matters occupy Nixon's time at his retreat in Key Biscayne, Fla.; selection of his Cabinet and other top administration aides, and initial work on his inaugural address.

Nixon has made no final Cabinet officer choices, even tentatively, a top advisor said, but has a list of potential Cabinet appointees and has reached some preliminary, personal judgments.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, refused meanwhile to say whether he has been offered a job in the Nixon administration.

"That's a private matter," Humphrey said Sunday.

The unsuccessful Democratic presidential candidate said he had made some plans for the future but was not ready to disclose them yet.

Humphrey also was in Florida — at Miami Beach continuing a post-campaign vacation.

The drive for GOP congressional gains in 1970, according to Nixon associates, may include replacement of National Republican Chairman Ray Bliss with what they describe as a more attention-commanding person.

The Republicans would have to gain at least nine seats in 1970 to control the Senate and 26 to take over the House. But off-year congressional elections tend to bring losses, not gains, for the party in the White House.

Sen. John G. Tower of Texas, meanwhile, was being mentioned as a likely chairman of Senate Republicans' campaign committee for 1970.

Sen. George Murphy of California will have to vacate the post because he is up for reelection that year.

Tower could be expected to adopt what he calls the "heartland" strategy of solidifying Republican strength in the South, Midwest and far West.

Refugee Prince Is Renamed

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A young Moslem prince who abandoned a life of affluent ease to help the world's underprivileged has been renamed U.N.M. protector of 3.5 million persons without countries.
The U.N. General Assembly voted by acclamation Friday to name Prince Sadruddin Aga Khan as U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees.
The 35-year-old prince, who was first named to the post in December 1965 will serve five years starting Jan. 1.
The prince, who is uncle of the Aga Khan IV is following a family tradition of public service. His father, the late Aga III, was India's representative to the League of Nations and president of the League. His half brother, the late Aly Khan, headed the Pakistani delegation to the United Nations in the late 1950s, and a nephew, Prince Amyn, has served with the U.N. Economic and Social Affairs Committee.
As son of the spiritual leader of 20 million Ismaili Moslems who owned one of the world's finest racing stables and roamed the play spots of the West, Sadruddin was brought up

Nixon Seeks Cabinet Men, Key Workers

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
KEY BECAUSE, Pa. (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon has his top advisers on a talent hunt, looking for men to serve in his Cabinet and seeking people for scores of other administration jobs.
He already has lists of potential Cabinet officers, and one top aide said Nixon has reached some preliminary, personal judgments on choices for those posts.
But the advisers also said that Nixon has chosen no one, even tentatively, at this point.
Nixon is known to have spent some time studying administration personnel prospects during his working vacation at this island resort.
But he is spending much of his time alone, considering the job problems and also working on initial drafts of the inaugural address he will deliver Jan. 20.
Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey flew into Miami Sun-in an atmosphere of Oriental splendor and western opulence. He is an Iranian citizen.

At Harvard, he developed an interest in international affairs. He first won the attention of the U.N. inner circle by helping raise $10 million to keep priceless Egyptian art treasures from being flooded by the waters of the Nile backing up behind the Aswan High Dam.
In 1962, Sadruddin was named deputy refugee commissioner and has served the cause ever since.
At present the commission has its hands full looking after the thousands of refugees swarming across borders in the volatile continent in Africa.

Biggest GOP Gains in California

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican gain of three seats in the California State Assembly had the most national significance of the changes made in state legislatures by the November elections.
Across the country, Republicans gained a net 40 or so seats, over their pre-election holdings — a far cry from the 700 they picked up in 1966.
But the victories in California gave Republicans control of the state's lower house, making the Democrats' struggle for a comeback in the nation's most populous state more difficult.
Conservative GOP Gov. Ronald Reagan was repeatedly stymied during his first two years in office by the Assembly and its Democratic speaker, Jess M. Unruh.

Unruh, a potential Reagan rival day afternoon to continue his postcampaign vacation. Aides to the President-elect said they had no prior knowledge of Humphrey's arrival and there were no plans for a meeting between the two. Humphrey aides — from the vice president's hotel a few miles up the Atlantic coast from Nixon's hideaway — confirmed that no arrangements had been made for a meeting.

The Nixon talent hunt is proceeding on two levels. There are the ten-level jobs to be filled in the Cabinet and just below. Two top advisers in that operation are John N. Mitchell, who was his campaign manager, and Leonard K. Garment. Both are partners in the Nixon law firm.
Then there is an effort to find people, particularly young people, for the array of assignments at lower levels of the administration.

A key man in it is John D. Ehrlichman, already appointed as an assistant to the president. He is at work on the immediate manpower needs of the incoming administration, and on a permanent mechanism for seeking talent.

Through that system, which is to be outlined in detail within the next few days, the new administration hopes to find and retain a continuing supply of talented people, with the emphasis on youth.

Nixon has appointed three top aides to White House positions as presidential assistants: Ehrlichman, H. R. Haldeman and Bryce N. Harlow. It is possible that there may be additional appointments, perhaps two, to the White House staff at that level.

One question now revolves around the possible future role of Herbert G. Klein, long a friend and communications advisor to Nixon.
Nixon has made clear that he has an assignment in mind for Klein, who was his director of campaign communications.

Wrote About Falls

Father Louis Hennepin, a French Recollect missionary who accompanied LaSalle's expedition to the area in 1678, was the first white man to write extensively about the "beautiful river Niagara." Hennepin said Niagara Falls "has no equal."

val in the 1970 gubernatorial election, will be reduced to Assembly minority leader.
How well he can combat Reagan from that position could partly determine how the governor's race goes in 1970 and what base the Democrats will have for recapturing California in the 1972 presidential campaign.
The state's 40 electoral votes provided Richard M. Nixon his margin of victory this year.
Besides the California Assembly, Republicans took over the lower houses in New York and Nevada and the senates in Indiana, Iowa and Delaware.

Democrats won the lower houses in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Alaska.
Republicans also have a shot at the Tennessee House, where voters elected 49 Democrats, 29 Republicans and one independent who says he has voted all his life for Republican presidential candidates.
With official vote canvasses and scattered recounts pending, a precise count of winners is not yet available. But Democrats apparently will have a margin of nearly 1,000 seats in the nation's 7,600 legislative districts. Much of this edge is built in the Deep South, where some chambers have no Republicans.

Seven states held no legislative elections this month and in many states, only half the seats were on the ballot. Republicans made gains in 38 chambers, Democrats in 31.
In some states where overt party control did not switch, shifts in membership could still bring political change.
In Massachusetts, for example, Republican Gov. John A. Volpe lost his veto-sustaining power when his party slipped to less than one-third of the membership in each house.

The situation is reversed in Kansas, where Democratic Gov. Robert Docking no longer has enough Democratic legislators to sustain his vetoes.
In the Indiana and Iowa senates, where Democrats lost half their delegations and control, Republicans were simply regaining the four-year seats they had lost in the Lyndon Johnson landslide of 1964.
But the GOP's assembly victory in Nevada broke 40 years of Democratic control over that

Monday, November 18, 1968
legislative body.
The Michigan House changed hands for the third straight election. Reapportionment and the Johnson landslide in 1964 had broken 30 years of GOP rule and given the Democrats a narrow edge. They lost the House narrowly in 1966 but regained it by four seats this time.
Republicans now hold both houses of the legislature in 21 states. Democrats have 20, control is divided in seven, Nebraska has a nonpartisan one-house legislature and Tennessee awaits the vote of the independent.
